OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 18 August 1970

- 25X1
STATSPEC 1. [ ] Delivered to the offices of Senator Claiborne Pell (D., R.I.) and Senator Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.) [ ] items in which their names were mentioned.
- 25X1 2. [ ] Left with Pam Foringer, on the staff of Representative Louis Frey, Jr. (R., Fla.), a suggested reply and three publications in response to a letter from William J. Hamilton in which he asked several questions about U. S. intelligence activities.
25X1A 3. [ ] Picked up three boxes of slides and 12 rolls of film from J. G. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security. Sourwine requested that the Agency make two copies of the photos, all of which were taken in Cuba, available to the Subcommittee. He said further that he would identify the individual who took the photos. The package of film was passed on to [ ] CI Staff, for review and evaluation.
- 25X1 4. [ ] On referral from the House Armed Services Committee, Emily C. Hammond called explaining that she was writing a "small book" and wanted to know if the Agency had issued a white paper on the National Student Association relationship. She said she wanted a more authoritative source to cite than the Ramparts magazine and New York Times articles. (She characterized these articles as excellent.) Miss Hammond was unaware of the Katzenbach Committee report and President Johnson's implementation of its recommendations, and at her request I gave her the date when the Committee report was made public by the White House. She assured me she was fully aware of the Agency's no comment policy. [ ] has been advised.
- 25X1A
25X1 5. [ ] In response to Jay Sourwine's, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, request of 14 August to [ ] delivered to Warren Littman, of the Subcommittee staff, a short classified sketch of the prior activities of [ ]
25X1 25X1C [ ] to hold for Al Tarabochia.
